Message from the President

Dear Neighbors,

I can't believe it's August already, and time for another HCCA meeting. It might be a coincidence but while attempting to write this letter, I've gotten two calls from organizations updating their calendars wanting to know if we meet every first Saturday of the month even August. When I tell them we never take a break, they all laugh. After all, even the Congress of the United States gets August off. Well, that's a battle I'll stay out of. I inherited these rules and I'll live with them. I even had to fight to schedule our family vacation for the middle of the month instead of the first like everyone wanted. "Come on Nana, you can miss one meeting," my oldest granddaughter pleaded. "I could," I replied, "but once you start planning to miss meetings, it becomes easier to duck out of your commitment." So Earl, three of our four children, their spouses, and seven grandchildren are taking a cruise on the 16th. This is not the first cruise Earl and I have taken but it's the first family venture. Wish us luck, this should be interesting.

Since I have committed to be at the HCCA meeting this month, I'm counting on the membership to turn out as usual to support their community. Speaking of supporting our community, I want to take a minute to thank Veronica Davis of Fairfax Village for finding HCCA. She made a commitment to canvas and get her neighbors in the village to come out and participate in HCCA. So far she has done a wonderful job of spreading the word. Thank you, Veronica. To keep HCCA a strong and viable civic association we have to recruit and engage new members. Reach out to the people on your block and invite them to a meeting, hopefully we'll do the rest. Talk to you again soon.

Karen

Palisades 4th of July Parade

Whew, it's a scorcher out here, but I'm having fun with my sister neighborhood.

The group of Hillcrest residents attending Palisades' annual Fourth of July parade was a small but proud contingent. HCCA president, Karen Williams, Friends of the Francis Gregory Library board member, Miles Steel and resident, Jim Byers, were in Jim's beautiful 67 Imperial Convertible.

HCCA President Karen Williams is flanked by her grand children.

Karen, playing Miss Daisy, was in the back of the car sporting a stylish straw hat that matched Jim's car. Her granddaughters held the long Hillcrest banner out in front of the car.

Palisades Fourth of July Parade

HCCA membership chair, Scott Akers and first vice president, Marvin Bowser carried the large Hillcrest 20th Anniversary banner behind the car. It was a beautiful hot day in the District. The crowd was large, loud, and in great spirits. Most of the politicians were in the parade; but well in front of the group, which had the opportunity to enjoy the neighborhood nature of the Palisades 4th of July parade.

Carolyn Lynch, the treasurer of the Friends of Francis Gregory Library, drove a 1997 Lincoln town car, displaying that banner. Everyone seemed to have had a great time.

It's America's Night Out Against Crime!

The 27th Annual National Night Out (NNO) is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 3, 2010, and it will be celebrated at two locations in Hillcrest.

- HCCA will be celebrating with Naylor Gardens from 6 p.m. – 9 p.m., and
- Fairfax Village will celebrate from 6:30- 9 p.m.

HCCA will start off the evening with an “All over the Hillcrest gang” bicycle patrol. All interested parties meet @ East Washington Heights Baptist Church’s parking lot at 6:45 p.m. We will bike to Fairfax Village and patrol the neighborhood ending at Naylor Gardens. All neighbors are encouraged to put on their porch lights; and those not participating in the bike patrol should walk their blocks. This would be an excellent time to exchange phone numbers and email addresses to create your own Dial my call neighborhood list.
