At the Hillcrest Recreation Center, Corner of Denver & 32nd Streets, S.E.

NOTE: Meetings are normally held the first Saturday of the month.

DERRICK WOODY, COORDINATOR, GREAT STREETS INITIATIVE, TO SPEAK AT NOVEMBER MEETING

The Great Streets Initiative is a program that is designed to implement approved plans to invest strategically in physical development and public realm improvements along the District's major corridors. "Great Streets" attempts to use public tools to leverage private investments and enhancements in neighborhoods to make corridors and boulevards clean, safe, and attractive destinations. Their goal is to provide neighborhood-preferred goods and services in well-maintained facilities while retaining, expanding, and attracting businesses. East of the River residents are probably most familiar with the Barracks Row project, a Great Streets initiative along the 8th Street Southeast corridor on Capitol Hill, where the revitalized area now boasts multiple local businesses, including restaurants, florists, pet grooming establishments, and many more.

Derrick Woody has served as the coordinator of the Great Streets initiative for the District since January 2005 and will serve as the speaker for the HCCA November meeting. Prior to working with the Great Streets initiative, Mr. Woody served as a project manager at the Office of the Deputy Mayor for Planning & Economic Development and as a revitalization planner. He earned a Bachelor's degree in Architecture from Auburn University and a Master of Architecture degree in Urban Design from Harvard University's Graduate School of Design.

DC RESIDENTS INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN CITIZEN SUMMIT IV: LIFTING ALL COMMUNITIES

Citizen Summit IV will take place on Saturday, November 19, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., at the Washington Convention Center, Hall D, 801 Mt. Vernon Place, N.W. Mayor Williams will convene citizens, elected officials and community leaders to begin making the tough choices involved in determining the citywide policies and priorities of the District government in the areas of youth development, employment and economic opportunity, and affordable housing.

Over the past six years, Mayor Williams has engaged more than 10,000 citizens in this unique planning process. As in past years, the day long Citizen Summit -- the largest town hall meeting in the United States -- will significantly influence decisions with respect to the District's annual spending priorities and legislative initiatives. To register online for the Summit, please visit citizensummit.dc.gov. District residents may call 202-727-2823 or visit citizensummit.dc.gov for more information. Translation and sign language services will be available.

Message from the President

Dear Neighbors,

Hurricane Katrina and other recent hurricanes were a reminder of life’s uncertainty. Have you ever wondered what you would do if you suddenly became the victim of a natural disaster, terrorist attack, fire or other unexpected event? Would you know what to grab if you had only seconds to escape your house? The plans you’ve made in advance and the items you decide to take will determine how quickly you are able to rebound from disaster. The foregoing was lifted from the AARP Bulletin, October 2005 edition article by Joseph Hearn entitled, “What If? The article discussed, in detail, seven ways to prepare for the unexpected, which I encourage everyone to read. The seven ways listed were:

1)Prepare a Grab-and-Go case, 2) Make an emergency contact list, 3) Prepare a household inventory, 4) Meet with your estate and financial advisers, 5) Update your plans, 6) Have a backup, and 7) Evaluate storage solutions carefully. None of us can prevent the unexpected, but putting your life back together can be easier if you have an advance plan of action. We all need to create plans for emergencies and personally prepare for them. There has been an emergency plan prepared for our community that is a living document undergoing continuous improvements. You can take advantage of opportunities to help our community better plan for emergencies by attending meetings oriented to public safety and by encouraging your friends and neighbors to prepare! Be pro-active and take steps to reduce hazards, home injuries, and personally prepare for unexpected emergencies.

Sincerely, Vincent M. Spaulding, President, HCCA
