LEARN MORE ABOUT CRIME PREVENTION AND NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH AT THE JULY 1 HCCA MEETING

Lt. Ronald Netter, PSA606, Metropolitan Police Department, is coordinating a mini-seminar of three guest speakers to address the issue of crime prevention. The three guest speakers are as follows: 1) Detective Daniel Straub will address organized theft rings, chop shops, and insurance fraud. 2) Investigator Clyde Smith will address identity theft. 3) Investigator Mark Lakomek will speak about 6D theft from autos and stolen automobiles.

At the end of the meeting there will be a swearing-in ceremony for zone leaders and block captains. All zone leaders and block captains, please make every effort to attend this official swearing-in

HAVE A GREAT  4TH OF JULY!!

PROPOSED WATER INCREASE

The D.C. Water and Sewer Authority is considering a proposed 7% rate increase for water and sewer services. If approved, the proposed change in rates would be effective no earlier than October 1, 2006.

Message from the President

Dear Neighbor,

First of all, I want to take this opportunity to express appreciation and congratulate the members of the 13th Annual Hillcrest Garden Tour Committee for a job well done. Appreciation is also expressed to the Hillcrest homeowners who allowed their elaborate home-gardens to be featured on the tour. Several residents of Hillcrest placed ads in the very impressive booklet that was prepared for the tour, for which we are also very appreciative. As a part of my message for this month, I would like to take this opportunity to comment on a matter that came up during the last Hillcrest monthly meeting regarding placing information about events being planned by churches and other organizations within our newsletter. Specifically, a question was asked whether the association received money from the East Washington Heights Baptist Church (EWHBC) for placing information in the newsletter regarding a fund raising event they are planning. I indicated that we did not, and that we do not, charge for information (on a space available basis) being placed in our newsletter that supports the activities of other public and non-profit organizations within our community. Many components of the community make up the fabric of the community, and that includes the ANC's, civic associations, community schools, libraries and churches, the police and fire departments, public and non-profit organizations, etc. As an association, we try to support the activities of the aforementioned organizations when the events are oriented towards doing things that improve the quality of life within our community, provide an opportunity to have fellowship and enjoy each others' company, support the programmatic activities and needs of other community organization components, etc. Over the years, all of the community organization components have mutually supported each other. Specifically, in the case of EWHB church, they just last Saturday allowed the garden tour committee to use their lawn and parking lot as the staging area for the HCCA Annual Garden Tour. EWHB church has also allowed the HCCA Fund Raising Committee to hold crab feasts in its parking lot and provided tables and chairs; and the annual community cleanup campaigns are staged in the parking lot of EWHBC. I could go on and on identifying how various organizations within our community mutually support each other. So that we can have an official policy position on publishing information regarding the activities of other organizations within our community, I have included this issue for discussion at the next HCCA Board of Director's meeting. Sincerely, Vincent Spaulding, R.A., President

CAPITAL FRINGE FESTIVAL TO INCLUDE NEIGHBORS THROUGH ART

Hillcrest residents, artists, performers, and writers will be showcased in the D.C. area's first Capital Fringe Festival, July 20-30. The festival will feature more than 100 performing groups in 20-odd venues around the city. This outburst of creative energy includes an original performance by Neighbors Through ART. The team-up of artists from the Palisades neighborhood in NW as well as the Hillcrest neighborhood in SE, is now five years old. It is an outgrowth of the Hillcrest-Palisades partnership which was founded in 1997.

As part of the Festival, Neighbors Through ART will present “Diagonal Voices/Echoes” on Saturday, July 22nd at 2PM at the Recital Hall of the Levine School of Music's Southeast campus, located at THEARC, 1901 Mississippi Ave., S.E., DC 20020. An innovative oral history presentation will include live music, dance, and original portraits of several long-term residents in both neighborhoods whom the event is honoring. All artwork and presentations will be created for the event by artists in the Hillcrest and Palisades neighborhoods and children from schools in both neighborhoods.

It's not too late to get involved! Volunteers are needed, including interviewers, writers, actors, stage hands, musicians, dancers, a stage manager, food contributions for the reception, and someone to help design the invitations and programs. To volunteer, please call Donna Coley-Trice (584-8555) or Miles Steele (582-7832) in Hillcrest, or Ginny Levy (244-5110) or Alice Stewart (364-1505) in Palisades.

13TH ANNUAL HILLCREST GARDEN TOUR – SUCCESSFUL!

Our homeowners made this year's tour particularly special. We received numerous very positive comments about the overwhelming sense of community pride, warmth, and neighborliness that was so tangible on Saturday, June 17th you could almost grab it. Our homeowners shared family histories, gardening tips, career advice, life lessons, punch and cookies, and cooking tips with their neighbors and visitors to Hillcrest. Thanks to our homeowners, the Curb Appeal Garden Tour was very personal and completely enjoyable to all who participated in and supported the day.

We had roughly 110 visitors who remained interested and excited throughout the tour. A special thanks to Phil and Mary Hammond, who hosted the reception at their lovely home. Please check out the Hillcrest web site for garden tour photos. www.hillcrestdc.com. Homeowners, thank you very much for supporting the Garden Tour:
