Council Chair Vincent C. Gray is probably one of Hillcrest's most famous residents and HCCA welcomes him as this month's speaker.

With his long-standing involvement and commitment to children, Chairman Gray has a solid reputation as a champion for young people and their families. His career in social services spans more than 30 years, beginning with his service as executive director of the D.C. Association for Retarded Citizens.

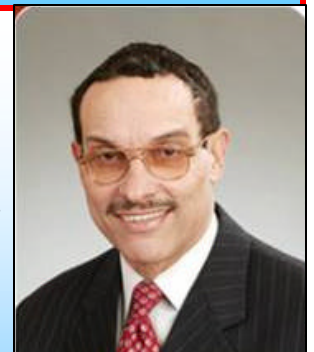

In 1991, Mayor Sharon Pratt Kelly appointed him as the director of the Department of Human Services, where he oversaw the functions of a 7,000-person department and directed activities related to public health, social services, mental health services and health care finance.

In December 1994, he was named the first executive director of Covenant House Washington, an organization that serves homeless and at-risk youth.

Chairman Gray assumed the role of chairperson of the Ward 7 Democrats in May 2003. In the September 2004 primaries, he defeated the incumbent Ward 7 Councilmember, and went on to win the November general election with 91 percent of the vote. He was sworn-in as a member of Council of the District of Columbia on Jan. 2, 2005. Since then, Chairman Gray has championed causes for District residents east of the river and has introduced or co-sponsored more than 70 pieces of legislation. He also serves as the chair of the Council's Special Committee to Prevent Youth Violence.

On Sept. 12, 2006, Chairman Gray won the Democratic Primary election for the office of Chairman of Council of the District of Columbia with 57 percent of the vote.

Gray, a native Washingtonian, is a proud product of the District of Columbia public school system. He attended undergraduate and graduate school at George Washington University. His wife, Loretta, died July 1998. They have two children, Jonice Gray Tucker and Vincent Carlos Gray. His first grandchild, Austin, was born January 2005.

Message from the President

Dear Neighbors,

Summer has come to Hillcrest. This year the weather has caused problems for many of us. Roofs leaked, basements flooded, trees have fallen, the list goes on and on. Where do we find reasonable, reliable help? You could write about your experience. Go to HCCA's Web site, www.hillcrestdc.com and click on Recommended Businesses.

Rules for Submission

- All recommendations must be based on first-hand experience.
- Recommendations will be listed with your name, your neighborhood and the recommendation date.
- No recommendation should be taken as a guarantee that the business will perform well.
- Recommendations will be accepted from any Washington, D.C., resident, but those from east of the Anacostia river are preferred because these businesses have already shown their willingness to work here.
- If you have a bad experience with a business, and want to share that information with your neighbors, consider posting it on the HillcrestDC list serve. If it is on the list of recommended businesses, the note "Neighbor reports bad experience with his business" will be added. If more than one bad experience is reported, the business will be removed from the list.

How to submit

Submit your recommendations by sending a message to Kathy Chamberlain at kathychamberlain@hillcrestdc.com. The subject of the message should be "Recommended Business." It will be a big help if you follow the format of the recommendations shown above. Be sure to include your name and neighborhood.

So far I have found a wonderful roofer, tree removal services and someone to repair my garage door. So if you need help, it's on the way at www.hillcrestdc.com.

15th annual Hillcrest garden tour a success

Eleven beautiful gardens, three home tours, proud homeowners and smiles everywhere. If you missed this year's Hillcrest Garden tour, you truly missed a treat. We received many kind comments from attendees about how much they enjoyed the tour, interacting with their neighbors and newfound friends in Hillcrest.

A very special thanks should go out to the host homeowners who dedicated a lot of time, effort and money to ensure their gardens were spectacular on June 14. Each addressed the tour groups, adding that all-important personal touch to the tour. Our guided tour format, and host homeowner involvement are two of the important features that set the Hillcrest tour apart from other garden tours in the city.

We had roughly 115 visitors participating, and who enjoyed the lovely pool-side reception. Please check out the Hillcrest Web site for photos. http://www.hillcrestdc.com/pg_gardentour08a.htm.

The garden tour committee this year included:

Letter from Anne Beers

Dear Hillcrest Community Civic Association,

Once again, as principal of Anne Beers Elementary School, I must express sincere appreciation on behalf of the entire Anne Beers staff, for the support and service that HCCA has rendered to the students.

We feel extremely blessed and honored to have you all assisting our students receive quality learning experiences. Throughout the school year, you have performed deeds that have benefited our students. Your donations made it possible for all qualified fourth-grade students to attend their year-end trip. It was heartwarming to know that all we had to do was state our need and the members of the HCCA would immediately respond to address our request.

We are truly indebted to you and will continue to work arduously to ensure that our students demonstrate academically and socially the evidence of your efforts. Thank you does little to express our gratitude for your taking the time to help our students learn, grow and develop. HCCA is living proof that it takes a village to raise a child. Your investment in Beers is truly an investment in developing our future. We look forward to your continued partnership and we will continue to work diligently to make you proud of your investment in our school. Great schools are made by great people like you at the Hillcrest Community Civic Association. If there is ever anything that the staff and students of Beers are able to do for the Hillcrest Community Civic Association, please do not hesitate to let us know.
